Relative truth is conventional or empirical truth - that experienced by the senses, whereas, the ultimate truth can only be realized by transcending concepts through intuitive insight. The Yogacara school emphasised that the ultimate truth can only be known through meditation.

Newsletter - 3/16/04 - Ultimate & Relative Truth in Buddhism

What is the Ultimate Truth? The ultimate truth is the Self. The Self is the Pure Soul. On the spiritual path, when people say, they want to realize the ultimate truth, they mean they want to realize the Self. All along, we have always believed, ‘ I am John (please insert your own name here), I am this, I am that. ’ But this is wrong belief! It ' s a worldly truth, with respect to something. Hence, it is a relative truth. For example, we believe ‘ I am John ’ , but it is a truth with ...
