The dust jacket and any marketing information would have us believe that Shadow of Power is Steve Martini's ninth thriller in the extensive Paul Madriani series. But, in my opinion, "thriller" rather overstates the nature of a novel that is interesting but never really reaches the level of a compelling, page turner.

Some Ephesians in Acts 19 believed that healing power was concentrated in articles of Paul ' s clothing (cf. Matthew 9:21). Some people today put their trust in handkerchiefs that have been " prayed over, " in relics of the saints, or in holy water. In Acts 3 God ' s power was demonstrated through Peter and John when a lame man was healed.

A Paul Madriani Legal Thriller by Steve Martini. Review: Shadow of Power, Steve Martini's ninth legal thriller featuring San Diego criminal defense attorney Paul Madriani, is so meticulously researched and well written that it is virtually impossible to discern where fiction ends and fact begins. Madriani and his team take on the defense of Carl Arnburg, a twenty-three year old member of the Aryan Nation, accused of the murder of noted flamboyant, and politically connected, author Terry ...
