The power of thinking differently has different value itself depending on where it's being used. We talk about the concept of disruption-of boldly throwing monkey wrenches in processes not out of spite or planning, but because progress is often the result of chaos. So our admiration for Steve Jobs makes sense.

- Steve Jobs, 1997 I've been thinking a lot lately about creativity and to what extent attitude plays a role. The most creative people I know are often the ones who have a hell-raiser trait in them, regardless of whether this comes from nature or nurture. These are people who think different, feel different, behave different.
